

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Illustrators tell stories, express ideas and communicate through visual art. The profession spans a wide range of applications, encompassing graphic novels, scientific illustration, visual development for animation and games, children’s books, interactive illustration and anything an illustrator can bring to life. The field includes editorial, advertising, and product illustration. Given the vast array of opportunities, today’s illustrators must understand how to communicate effectively with a chosen medium and situate their work professionally within a particular market.

Students in the illustration emphasis receive instruction in conceptual illustration, digital illustration, rendering, perspective, painting, exhibition preparation, professional practices and the use of various artistic and illustration techniques. In preparation for a professional illustration career, the course work allows students to master numerous essential digital and traditional tools.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

Freshmen with fewer than 30 credits and/or CAM students who are Undeclared are assigned to the Center for Undergraduate Exploration and Advising (CUE&A). All other College of Arts & Media (CAM) students with more than 30 credits who have declared CAM majors are assigned to the CAM Office of Advising and Student Services.

Students can connect with the internal CAM admissions team to learn more about the program, additional admission requirements, spaces, equipment and technology.

Students with a declared CAM major that have more than 30 credits are encouraged to meet with a CAM advisor every semester prior to registration.

Freshmen with fewer than 30 credits and/or CAM students that are Undeclared students are assigned to the Center for Undergraduate Exploration and Advising. These students are required to meet with an advisor every semester prior to registration.

GENERAL GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS & POLICIES

All CU Denver CAM students are required to complete the following minimum general graduation requirements:

1. Complete a minimum of 120 semester hours.
2. Achieve a minimum 2.0 CU cumulative grade point average (GPA).
3. Complete a minimum of 45 upper division (3000/4000 level) credits.
4. Complete all college and major requirements.
5. Residency: complete a minimum of 30 CU Denver hours in good standing at CU Denver.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS & POLICIES

Illustration is rigorous, and students are expected to be highly motivated. Emphasis courses take a minimum of four semesters to complete, assuming students start in fall semester and are accepted into the program the first time they apply during the previous Spring. To be eligible to apply for admission, students must complete (or be currently enrolled in) a minimum of 7 courses: FINE 1100 Drawing I, FINE 1400 2-D Design, FINE 1500 3D Design, FINE 2155 Intro to Digital Design, FINE 2405 Intro to Digital Design, and FINE 2600 Art History I, and FINE 2610 Art History II, with a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or greater. The portfolio review day occurs during the Spring term, on the Friday nearest to April 1st.

Students are responsible for meeting with a CAM advisor to confirm degree progress. Students completing the Fine Arts BFA Degree with an emphasis in Illustration are required to complete the following minimum program requirements:

1. Complete 34 semester hours of CU Denver Core Curriculum coursework.
2. Complete a minimum of 77 semester hours of major-area coursework with a grade of C (2.0) or better in each course.
3. Complete a 3-credit College of Arts & Media graduation requirement.
