

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Human Development and Family Relations (HDFR) program prepares students to effectively serve individuals and families in a wide variety of environments. HDFR is committed to a curriculum rich in family diversity and social justice. This 120 credit-hour interdisciplinary program explores family systems and the ecological development of individuals across their life span. The HDFR program leads to certification in the field.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

The School of Education & Human Development (SEHD) requires all students to meet with their Academic Advisor several times a year to develop and learn more about their own individualized plan of study.

GENERAL GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS & POLICIES

To receive a bachelor's degree from the University of Colorado Denver, students must satisfy all of the requirements below, in addition to completing a Major and fulfilling all of their School or College requirements.

1. A minimum of 120 credit hours is required to graduate from CU Denver with a bachelor's level degree.
2. A minimum 2.000 cumulative GPA is required for all University of Colorado coursework.
3. Satisfactory completion of the CU Denver Core Curriculum.

In addition to the general university graduation requirements listed above, all SEHD students are required to complete the following minimum general graduation requirements:

1. Students must earn a final grade of at least a C (2.0) in major courses. Courses/requirement must be repeated if the student fails to earn the grade required.
2. Students must complete all program assessments and professional milestones as outlined in the Student Handbook.
3. Students must complete all requirements associated with their SEHD major.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS & POLICIES

Students are responsible for meeting with the academic advisor in the School of Education & Human Development to confirm major requirements. Students completing the Human Development and Family Relations Bachelor of Science are required to complete the minimum program requirements below.

1. Students must complete a minimum of 120 semester hours for the Human Development Family Relations major.
2. Courses can be "double dipped" - i.e., used to satisfy both a CU Denver core requirement and an HDFR major course. If double dipping courses, additional HDFR courses will have to be taken in the Concentration Area, Electives and/or minor section to get to the 120 major required credits.
3. A minimum GPA of 2.0, grade of C or better, is required for all major courses applying to Human Development and Family Relations.
4. Transfer courses must be approved by faculty and/or advisor to apply to the major.
