

Center for Faculty Development & Advancement

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO DENVER | ANSCHUTZ MEDICAL CAMPUS

Rubric for Evaluating NCFDD Faculty Success Program Grant Applications

Criteria	5 (Exemplary)	4 (Good)	3 (Satisfactory)	2 (Needs Improvement)	1 (Inadequate)
Statement of Interest: Provides (a) detail on how participation will benefit their career and (b) how participation will benefit department or CU Denver.	Strong, compelling statement with detailed, realistic points	Concrete and productive points presented; lacking detail	Some points identified, but lacking clarity	Benefits to faculty member or to university unclear	Benefits to individual or university not provided
Chair/Dean/Assoc. Dean Recommendation Letter	Outstanding recommendation providing detailed	Strong recommendation with some	Some positive details, but lacks depth	Lacks specific details for support	Letter not provided

	reasons for support	reasons for support
Prioritization of Junior Faculty (in first 6 years at CU Denver)	Applicant is a junior faculty member.		Applicant is not a junior faculty member.
Membership in a historically marginalized group	Applicant discusses identification with a historically marginalized group.		Applicant does not discuss identification with a historically marginalized group.

Total Score: _____ / 20

Version: 30 September 2024