

Connections Program for High-Risk Infants and Families Community Advisory Network (CAN)

Members needed!

CAN Mission

---

To improve access to innovative, effective, and community-responsive behavioral health programs for young children born with medical complexities and their families from conception to kindergarten

Members will

- Share experiences and needs for resources
- Identify barriers that high-risk infants and their families experience when accessing behavioral health services
- Provide valuable input on resource needs and dissemination strategies

Additional details

- Members include parents/caregivers with lived experience as well as providers who work with medically complex infants and their families
- CAN meetings will take place virtually for 1 hour and will meet 3-4 times (times/dates TBD)
- Members will receive $125 per meeting attended
